Harvey Jones is a 7th grader whose kindness, empathy, and joyful personality make a lasting impression on everyone around him. A true friend to all, Harvey is well known and loved throughout his middle school. As he walks through the hallways, he is regularly greeted by classmates with a handshake, high five, or hug—a reflection of the meaningful connections he has built with his peers. With his great sense of humor and love of making others laugh, Harvey brings happiness wherever he goes.

Harvey is also incredibly active and loves being involved. This year, he has participated on the 7th grade basketball and swim teams, played in a recreational soccer league, and attends dance class every weekend.
