

Congratulations Janna Pharo!

2026 Michigan CEC Yes I Can! Athletics Award Winner

Janna Pharo is a dedicated student-athlete whose heart, determination, and positive attitude shine both on and off the court. As a proud member of the volleyball and basketball teams, Janna approaches every practice, drill, and game with enthusiasm, perseverance, and a strong work ethic. She gives her best in everything she does while always putting her team first.

Janna is a true teammate and leader who encourages those around her, celebrates the accomplishments of others, and continually challenges herself to grow. When faced with obstacles, she responds with resilience and determination, refusing to let challenges define what she can achieve. Her willingness to keep working, improving, and supporting her teammates makes her an important part of every team she joins.

Through her sportsmanship, perseverance, and commitment to others, Janna demonstrates what it means to be a hardworking student and dedicated athlete. Michigan CEC is proud to recognize Janna Pharo with the Yes I Can! Award in Athletics.

